FRIENDLY SMILE

Of all the old and new delights
That make this life worth while
I think that none gives greater joy
Than just a friendly smile
A smile that seems to say hello
And how are you today
And sort of picks your troubles up
And pushes them away
It is a greeting fit for kings
Yet always it is free
And it belongs to every class
Of social company
A friendly smile relieves the strain
Wherever strangers meet
And as it praises victory
It comforts in defeat
It is the kind of handshake that
Will penetrate a glove
And now and then it lights the flame
That kindles into love.
